SENIOR SUMMER COURSE 2018

15-19 YEARS

Monday 28th July – Saturday 28th July 2018

Course Fee: £380

About the course

Rambert School's Senior Summer Course offers aspiring dancers aged 15-19 years the chance to immerse themselves in dance training for one intensive week. Modelled on the timetable of the full-time FD/BA Hons degree programme, the course will be held at Rambert School's world-class purpose-built facilities in Southwest London. The the course offers students the chance to study first-hand from Rambert School faculty and alumni and will culminate in a performance in the School's own Studio Theatre. This is a unique opportunity for students wishing to experience a professional training environment and prepare for auditions.

Typical day

Students will take daily ballet and contemporary technique classes, complimented by sessions in pointe, ballet repertoire, conditioning, improvisation and creative work, underpinning the School's 50/50 focus on ballet and contemporary.

Faculty

Classes will be led by Rambert School's faculty and alumni as well as guest teachers, with technique classes accompanied by live musicians.

Requirements

Students must be at least 15 years and should not yet have turned 20 by 1st September 2018.

Students should have been attending weekly dance classes in ballet and/or contemporary dance for at least two years and be dancing at an intermediate level or above.
