7.1 You may be permitted to intermit your studies, with permission from Rambert School in accordance with Rambert School Attendance Policy www.rambertschool.org.uk/courses/fdba-degree (in Student Handbook). 7.3 During the intermission of your studies, Rambert School may make adjustments to your course, in line with the terms outlined in conditions 16 and 17. You will be consulted as soon as Rambert School is aware that changes may affect your course.

7.4 If your enrolment is interrupted or terminated for whatever reason, this may affect any bursary or scholarship awarded to you.

8. Fees and Costs

8.1 This section sets out key conditions relating to fees. You should consult Rambert School's Fees Policy for full information on fees and debts. <https://www.rambertschool.org.uk/courses/fdba-degree-policies-procedures/>

8.2 It is important that you read the Fees Policy carefully as this sets out Rambert School's and your respective rights and obligations including but not limited to circumstances in which sums paid to Rambert School will be refunded. It also sets out the potential consequences if you fail to make payment, which includes Rambert School's ability to terminate your registration and this contract, and/or to withhold awards. In addition, non-payment of fees and/or charges could result in Rambert School taking legal action against you to recover outstanding amounts.

- 8.3 We may require you to pay a deposit to confirm the offer of a place on a course. Course fee deposits are not normally refundable.
- 8.4 Course fees for each year become payable on enrolment and at re-enrolment each year. Course fees include: tuition, course materials, learning resources and assessment costs, and are set out in the Rambert School's Fees Policy.
- 8.5 Course fees do not include some personal materials, such as practice clothes/kit and books. You will be expected to bear the cost of attending at least one dance performance during your period at the Rambert School.
- 8.6 For students paying Home / EU undergraduate fees who are new entrants to a course in 2017/18 or new entrants to a course in subsequent years, the course fees confirmed in your offer letter may be increased in further years of study by an inflationary amount determined in accordance with measures set by Government (currently the Office for Budget Responsibility forecast for RPI-X, being the retail price index, excluding mortgage interest payments). Any such increased fees will not exceed the fee cap current in respect of the relevant period. . For all other undergraduate students and for all postgraduate students who are new entrants to a course in 2017/18 or new entrants to a course in subsequent years, the course fee confirmed in your offer letter may be increased in subsequent years of study but this increase shall be in accordance with the Rambert School Fees policy. <https://www.rambertschool.org.uk/courses/fdba-degree-policies-procedures/>
- 8.7 It is your responsibility to ensure that all deposits, tuition and other fees and charges payable to Rambert School are paid when due. Your offer letter will state the amount of tuition fees that you will be required to pay. Where it is agreed that fees may be paid in instalments, these must be received on time. Late or non-payment may result in your removal from any instalment plan. Unless you have the prior written agreement of Rambert School to a different schedule of instalments, course fees must be paid in accordance with the schedule of instalments relating to your specific course, as outlined in the Fees Policy.
- 8.8 If you are paying your course fees with a government-sponsored loan, you must provide proof to Rambert School before enrolment that you have the necessary finance in place. If you are not able to provide proof, Rambert School may require that you pay the first instalment of your fees yourself.
- 8.9 Please note that if someone other than you makes any payment, or agrees to make any payment, on your behalf, you remain liable for full payment until Rambert School has received cleared funds.
- 8.10 If you do not pay course fees in accordance with these terms, Rambert School reserves the right to withdraw your place on the course, and/or suspend or withdraw you from the course until any fee debt is paid or cancelled by Rambert School in accordance with its Fees Policy. If you cease to be a student of Rambert School, because for example you withdraw or Rambert School terminates your registration, you may still be liable for any course fees and/or other charges which are outstanding, in accordance with the Fees Policy.

9. Risk of Injury and Health Insurance

- 9.1 The Rambert School aims to provide a well maintained environment that all users and staff members find safe and enjoyable and in which you can seek to achieve your learning goals effectively. In providing this environment, Rambert School understands and complies with its legal obligations to act reasonably to safeguard the health and safety of its students.

9.2 Pursuant to these terms and conditions, all students are required to familiarise themselves fully with and to adhere to the Rambert School Code of Conduct <https://www.rambertschool.org.uk/courses/fdba-degree/> (In Student Handbook). You are required to take care for your own safety and for the safety of those around you, and to ensure that equipment that you own is suitable for the proposed use and regularly checked and maintained.

9.3 You should be aware, however, that Rambert School courses and their assessments can be physically demanding. In addition, ballet/ dance skills by their very nature include elements of risk including injury. Whilst we take reasonably practicable measures to reduce or eliminate these risks, it is not possible to eliminate them all. For this reason we would encourage you to consider taking out private health insurance to support you with any medical treatment that you may require. Health care can be obtained free of charge from the NHS but waiting times for treatment are unpredictable and may result in disruption to and interruption of your studies. Long periods of absence may result in you being unable to complete the course.

10. Personal equipment and other property

10.1 Rambert School can accept no responsibility for loss or damage to your equipment or other property which is incurred at Rambert School or otherwise in the course of your studies.

11. Intellectual property

11.2 If you are studying for an undergraduate or taught postgraduate degree, unless agreed otherwise, you shall own any intellectual property you generate and provide to Rambert School during your course.

12. Criminal convictions

As part of your application process Rambert School requires information concerning relevant unspent criminal convictions to be disclosed, so that it may assess, whether it is appropriate to permit an individual to join the Rambert School community. Rambert School will consider whether any unspent criminal convictions or related information are compatible with you taking up your place or continuing on your course. You are required to make a similar disclosure each year you re-enrol.

13. Data Protection

13.1 Rambert School and CDD (each a "Controller") collect, hold and otherwise process "personal data" (which may include "sensitive personal data", as defined by the Data Protection Act 1998 or "special category personal data" as defined by the General Data Protection Regulation) about applicants and students of Rambert School which is provided to them by you (or which is otherwise received from third parties) for their own, separate purpose(s), in accordance with each Controller's Data Protection Statement.

13.2 This personal information is generally processed by each Controller for the following general purposes: to administer admissions, courses of study and pastoral care; to monitor student performance; to send communications to students; to compile statistics for internal monitoring and enhancement purposes or for publication; and to make required returns to external bodies, including to the regulator (the Higher Education Funding Council) and agencies of UK Government (e.g. as a condition of leave to remain in the UK). More specific details are set out in each Controller's Data Protection Statement
<http://www.cdd.ac.uk/about-us/how-we-work/resources-and-policies/> and
<https://www.rambertschool.org.uk/courses/fdba-degree-policies-procedures/>

13.3 Please note that by providing your personal information to each Controller, you are providing your consent to the processing of that personal information by that Controller where, in accordance with the relevant Data Protection Statement and any other information and/or consent form(s) provided to you from time to time, that is the basis for lawful processing of your personal information.

15. Choice of on-course activities

15.1 Subject to condition 18 (events outside our control) and our rights to make changes to courses and/or to these terms and conditions under conditions 16 and 17, Rambert School will deliver courses as set out in the prospectus and course summary document referred to in condition 2.2.3. However, you should note that the structure of Rambert School's courses requires students to undertake a number of small group performance projects and similar activities and you may on occasion be asked to express preferences for which of the available group performance projects or similar activities you wish to undertake. Whilst Rambert School undertakes to provide each student with an appropriate range of opportunities throughout the duration of the course as set out in the prospectus and course summary, Rambert School does not guarantee to accommodate the individual preferences of students in its allocation of performance projects or similar activities to students, although it will make reasonable endeavours to meet student preferences. Consequently, you may not get to take part in the group performance projects or similar activities that you have expressed as being your preferred projects or activities and, where this is the case, Rambert School will not be in breach of the contract.

16. Course changes, discontinuance, suspension and non-provision

16.1 If it reasonably considers it to be necessary, Rambert School may make reasonable changes to the content, syllabus, mode of delivery and/or timetable of courses set out in the prospectus and course summary document which:

- 16.2 Rambert School may discontinue, suspend and/or not provide courses if there are insufficient numbers of student enrolments to make a course viable and/or for any reason outside the Rambert School's control (as set out in Condition 17).
- 16.3 Where changes are to be made to courses in accordance with condition 16.2 which are not significant, we will, following suitable consultation with affected students, take all reasonable steps to notify you at the earliest opportunity and to minimise any disruption to your studies (if you are affected by the change).
- 16.4 In the unlikely event that the Rambert School changes a course significantly:
- 16.4.1 Rambert School will, following suitable consultation with affected students, take all reasonable steps to notify you at the earliest opportunity and minimise any disruption to your studies (if you are affected by the change);
  - 16.4.2 you will be entitled to withdraw from the course by informing Rambert School of this intention;
  - 16.4.3 If you withdraw from the course, Rambert School may (if reasonable to do so), refund course fees and/or deposits paid (albeit please note that, if reasonable, refunds may be calculated on a pro rata basis) and
  - 16.4.4 Where reasonably practicable, the Rambert School will offer you a place on a course which Rambert School deems a suitable alternative.
- 16.5 In the unlikely event that Rambert School discontinues, suspends and/or does not provide a course, in consultation with the validating university:

17.1.1 in circumstances where Rambert School reasonably considers this to be necessary for the enhancement of its provision in the best interests of students and/or for the appropriate management of its resources and/or its student community; and/or

17.1.2 in circumstances which are caused by matters outside our control (as set out in condition 18); and/or

17.1.3 in circumstances which reflect changes in relevant laws; and/or

17.1.5 in the event of changes in Rambert School's validation arrangements, for example where the University of Kent determines to amend any of its regulations, policies or procedures which apply to your programme.
