Expanding our Student Bursaries

“Being in a studio environment every day, surrounded by dancers and friends who continue to inspire you, and mentored by teachers who motivate you – it’s just immense.”

Rambert School Graduate

“As a school we understand and acknowledge our position as one that plays a direct role in shaping the future of the arts and cultural sectors. We will continue to pride ourselves on attracting the most gifted dancers to our school and supporting them through their training.”

Amanda Britton, Chief Executive, Principal and Artistic Director

UNLOCK CREATIVE POTENTIAL

In the past five years, the number of bursaries awarded to our students has more than doubled yet there is more work to do. The need far outstrips our capacity to support. Last year, the School awarded £309,000 but we could have doubled that figure if we had met all the needs and had the funds available.

We strongly believe in promoting equality, diversity and inclusion across our art form and work to change the landscape of dance. It is our mission to make our training inclusive and accessible to all who have the talent and potential to succeed regardless of means.

To realise this mission, we must increase the financial support we give, and we need your help to fulfil this.

Our goal is to raise additional funding of £300,000 per year. These new funds will provide:

- 10 full scholarships
- Bursaries of £5,000 to all our UK students with household income of less than £25,000

Rambert School is not a place of privilege. Many of our students come from low-income families and find it difficult to support themselves during their three years of training. The demanding schedule of classes, rehearsal, and self-practice makes it difficult for them to seek part-time work to support themselves. Whilst many will take student loans, this does not cover the additional expenses associated with a vocational course such as dance wear, pointe shoes, and audition fees. We want to ensure we remove those financial barriers and providing bursary support is how we can do this.

BE PART OF THE FUTURE OF DANCE

At Rambert School we are leading the way in global dance education. We are a place of innovation, excellence, and creativity. We deliver degree programmes within the higher education sector and attract the very best in dance talent to our course.

We nurture and develop thinking artists with world class technical ability. Our graduates go on to have outstanding careers as dancers, choreographers and artistic leaders and have a profound impact on the dance sector internationally.

Through our work we are both feeding the dance profession and influencing it.

TRANSFORM THE LIVES OF OUR STUDENTS WITH A GIFT

We rely greatly on the generosity of individuals, corporates, and charitable trusts and foundations to support the work we do and are enormously grateful for every gift we receive. We need your help to protect the futures of our students. Your support will have an immediate and lifechanging impact on the lives of young people and the future of dance.

£250+ per year will help towards the associated costs of training including dancewear. Pointe shoes alone can be £100, and dancers can need several pairs at a time for class and performance.

£500+ per year can help a graduating student prepare for auditions. This can be an expensive time with audition photos, show reels, and flights abroad.

£1,000+ per year can support our international students with costs associated with studying abroad including flights.

£5,000+ per year can make a significant difference in relieving financial anxiety for a student. Many of our students come from low-income households and find it difficult to support their living costs.

£10,000+ per year can offer a UK student a fee-free place. Every young person should have the opportunity to access excellence in higher education. For many, the tuition fees stand in the way.

HOW TO DONATE

STUDENT BURSARY FUND

Our Student Bursary Fund allows you to make a one-off or regular donation towards supporting our students.

MARIE RAMBERT BURSARY FUND

Launched in honour of our founder, the Marie Rambert Bursary Fund gives donors the opportunity to support students through their three years of training by paying an annual amount (minimum £250) for three years.

NAMED SCHOLARSHIP

A scholarship established in your name will provide the life-changing gift of an outstanding education in dance and will secure the future of a dancer. Scholarships are awarded based on talent, potential, and financial need.

ENDOWMENT

An endowment can help us plan for the future. In a time of much uncertainty, particularly within arts and higher education, future-proofing is more vital than ever before.

LEGACY GIVING

A bequest is one of the most personal gifts you can make. We would work with you to ensure that any legacy is used exactly how you would want it to be.
