About the course

Rambert School's Senior Summer Course offers aspiring dancers aged 15-19 years the chance to immerse themselves in dance training for one intensive week. Modelled after the timetable of the full-time FD/BA Hons degree programme, the course will be held at Rambert School's world-class purpose-built facilities in Southwest London. Working in small groups, the course offers students the chance to study first-hand from Rambert School faculty, alumni, and associated artists. This is a unique opportunity for students wishing to experience a professional training environment and prepare for auditions.

Students will take daily ballet and contemporary technique classes, complimented by sessions in pointe, virtuosity, ballet repertoire, conditioning, improvisation and creative work, underpinning the School's 50/50 focus on ballet and contemporary.
