

POST-GRADUATE EXTERNAL EXAMINER VACANCY
FOR OCTOBER 2022

Rambert School of Ballet and Contemporary Dance, validated by the University of Kent, is seeking to appoint an External Examiner commencing October 2022.

The vacancy is for the MA Dance Research for Professional Practitioners (Validated 2020)

The external examiner should have a background in dance (preferably with a strong research background) as well as extensive experience of the dance profession along with an understanding of dance pedagogy. Applicants should be educated to at least MA level and have experience of external examining in at least one other HE institution with a strong insight into the academic/research side of dance practices and awareness of practice research methodologies.

To avoid conflicts of interest, we are unable to accept applications if you:

- are a current external examiner within the University of Kent or Rambert School or have acted as an external examiner for either institution in the past;
- have had links with Rambert School in a teaching and/or administrative capacity;
- are currently professionally involved with members of the Rambert School course team;
- have been employed within the previous five years by Rambert School or the University or at one of its associate institutions.
- are involved with Rambert School as a trustee

Further Information:

Rambert School's training has for many years enabled graduates to enjoy highly successful careers as dance artists and as choreographers. The School entered the Higher Education (HE) sector in 2005, and is validated by the University of Kent.

If you would like further information on the courses, please contact Phaedra Petsilas, Head of Studies at Rambert School Phaedra.petsilas@rambertschool.org.uk or visit the School website HERE.

Please note, the appointed External Examiner will be employed directly through the University of Kent. They have published further information on the opportunity and associated fees (the maximum annual fee being £1073) and expenses HERE.

Please send initial expressions of interest by Friday 1 July 2022, accompanied by your current CV to Phaedra.petsilas@rambertschool.org.uk Applicants are also asked to complete our Equality & Diversity Monitoring Form, accessible HERE.

OUR COMMITMENT TO EQUALITY, DIVERSITY & INCLUSION

Rambert School is an equal opportunities employer, meaning we are committed to providing equality of opportunity in employment to all of our staff and applicants, regardless of their age, disability, gender, gender reassignment status, marriage or civil partnership status, parental status, race, religion, belief or sexual orientation. We are committed to creating a diverse workforce that is representative of our society and therefore actively encourage applications from people from any background. We encourage and embrace difference in our staff and foster a culture of inclusivity. We have adopted the Halo Code, championing the right of staff to embrace all Afro-hairstyles, and welcome the wearing of headscarves and hijabs. As an organisation, we have committed to a Racial-Justice and Anti-Racism Action Plan.