Glossary of Key Words used in this Document

'Course' is used to refer to the full programme of training, study and assessment which you will undertake in pursuit of an award. Each course is made up of a number of modules, and follows the academic regulations of the validating university: for Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance, degree courses are validated and awarded by the University of Kent.

'Enrolment' The annual process by which you formally confirm you are beginning each year of your course. Enrolment must normally be fully completed in order to receive full access to School and course facilities. Enrolment is carried out by the School, and takes place annually (i.e. each student must re-enrol at the start of each academic year in order to continue their studies). Your registration will lapse if you do not enrol at the start of each academic year.

'Intermission of studies' (also known as 'interruption' or 'suspension' of studies), is where you take some time out from completing your studies within the normal anticipated timeframe. This means your registration as a student with Rambert School remains current, even though you will not be enrolled for the period of time out you are taking (please also see the section 'Registration' below, for further information). Depending on the length of time away from studies that you need to take, this may or may not have an impact on the point at which you can re-join your course and resume your studies, and in some instances you may be required to restart a module or academic year from the start. Intermitting or interrupting your studies might also have implications for your student finance arrangements if you are in receipt of funding from the Student Loans Company (or another funding body such as the Student Awards Agency for Scotland or US Federal Loans). Any authorisation of a period of intermission must be done in accordance with the academic regulations of the validating university. Students studying under a Student Visa should note that intermission of studies may impact upon the terms of your visa and/or alter your visa status.

'Named Responsible Adult' is someone who has agreed to act in your interests and take responsibility for you in matters relating to your higher education course of study. Applicants and students who are estranged from their parents may name a 'responsible adult' who has agreed to take responsibility for them and will be the person with whom the School will communicate with where necessary, with regard to any aspect of your study. If you have any questions about this, you should contact a member of staff in the School to discuss it further.

'Registration' is the final part of the admissions process, where you confirm and update as necessary the personal details we hold for you which you provided in your application; confirm the School course you are intending to study, and agree to abide by, comply and engage with our Terms and Conditions and all related regulations and policies. Registration confirms that you are a student of the School.

'Validated' Validation is defined by the Quality Assurance Agency as 'a process by which a degree-awarding body judges a module or course developed and delivered by another organisation and approves it as being of an appropriate standard and quality to contribute, or lead, to one of its awards'.

'Validating University' The higher education institution that validates the courses and awards your degree. Your degree certificate will state that you have a degree from the validating university.

Queries and Enquires

Queries and enquires about these Terms and Conditions should be addressed in writing to the School via email to: admissions@rambertschool.org.uk

1. IMPORTANT TERMS OF THIS CONTRACT

Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance would like to bring to your attention the following important terms of this contract. Please also refer to Section 3 of this contract for further information on important terms.

- 1.1 For the avoidance of doubt, your place on the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Course at Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance is only confirmed when you receive, in response to your acceptance of the School's offer of a place, an email from Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance confirming that you have been accepted onto the Course.
- 1.2 These Terms and Conditions govern the relationship between you and Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance ("Rambert School" or "the School), and it is important that you read them carefully prior to accepting your offer to ensure that you understand their contents.
- 1.3 By accepting the offer of a place on the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Course, you accept these Terms and Conditions in full, which along with your offer and the School's rules, regulations, policies and procedures, alongside the academic rules, regulations, policies and procedures of the University of Kent, as applicable, form the contract between you and the School, in relation to your studies at the School.
- 1.4 Relevant policies of Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance applicable to this contract are published at: www.rambertschool.org.uk.
- 1.5 Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance is a legally autonomous institution and independent training organisation and charity (registered charity number 1098900), and is a registered Higher Education Provider with the Office for Students (OfS) (UKPRN 10005378).
- 1.6 On enrolling upon a course of higher education with Rambert School you will be a registered student of the School. The MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners is validated by the University of Kent (the 'validating university') and therefore upon completion of the degree you will receive an award from the University of Kent.
- 1.7 It is important that you read the Fees Policy carefully (Annex A to these Terms & Conditions, see also Section 10 of these Terms and Conditions) as this sets out the respective rights and obligations of you and of Rambert School, including but not limited to circumstances in which sums paid to the School will be refunded. It also sets out the potential consequences if you fail to make payment, which includes (for unpaid academic fees and charges) the School's ability to terminate your registration and this contract, and/or to withhold awards. In addition, non-payment of academic or non-academic fees and/or charges could result in Rambert School taking legal action against you to recover outstanding amounts.
- 1.8 It is your responsibility to ensure that all deposits, tuition and other Course fees and charges payable to Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance are paid when due. Your offer letter will state the amount of Course fees that you will be required to pay.

- 1.9 Unless you have the prior written agreement of Rambert School to a different schedule of instalments, Course fees must be paid in accordance with the schedule of instalments relating to your specific course, as outlined in the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Fees Policy (Annex A to these Terms and Conditions). All fee instalments must be received on time; failure to do so will be a breach of these Terms and Conditions. Late or non-payment may result in your removal from any instalment plan.
- 1.10 You must enrol at the designated session at the start of your course, as set out in your introductory information and induction pack provided by the School. If you cannot or do not enrol at the designated session you must provide the School with a reason for your non-enrolment which is acceptable to the School in order to be permitted to enrol on another occasion, otherwise you will not be entitled to enrol for that year of study (or any future year of study) and your relationship with the School, and this contract shall be terminated.
- 1.11 These Terms and Conditions will become binding on you and us when we confirm your place on the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners in writing following your written acceptance of an offer, and any conditions set out in your offer have been met to our satisfaction, at which point a legal contract is formed between you and the School on the basis of the terms and conditions set out in your offer letter, the Terms and Conditions set out in this document, the terms and conditions set out in the policies and regulations listed in Section 3 of this contract and applicable academic rules, regulations, policies and procedures of the University of Kent.
- 1.12 Students admitted to the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Course shall pay the Course fees published for their two-year registration period as shown in the Course Summary Document relevant to the cohort. Students who intermit their studies and return in a new academic year that falls outside the normal two-year registration period for this Course are charged at the same rate as new students in the year they return. This may lead to an increase in the amount you are required to pay overall for the Course fees. Where a student returns from intermitting their studies with no tuition outstanding, there will not be any increase in any outstanding Course fees.
- 1.13 In the event that reassessment leads a student to exceed the normal two-year period of registration, and where that reassessment necessitates further tuition for this Course, the student will be charged at the same rate as new students in the year where reassessment and further tuition takes place. The fee shall be pro-rated on a termly or half termly basis, subject to the period of tuition required. Where reassessment does not necessitate any tuition, there will be no increase in any outstanding Course fees.
- 1.14 If you do not pay Course fees in accordance with these terms, the School reserves the right to withdraw your place on the course, and/or suspend or withdraw you from the course until any Course fee debt is paid or cancelled by the School in accordance with the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Fees Policy . If you cease to be a student of the School, because for example you withdraw or the School terminates your registration, you may still be liable for any Course fees and/or other charges which are outstanding, in accordance with the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Fees Policy (Annex A to these Terms and Conditions).

- 1.15 The first 14 days of your enrolment constitute the ‘Contractual Cooling Period’ applicable to this contract. During the Contractual Cooling Period you have the right to withdraw from your course up to and including the end of Week 2 of Term 1 without incurring any tuition fee liability (please see the the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Fees Policy. In the event of starting the Course late, the first 14 days of your enrolment on the Course constitute the ‘contractual cooling period’.
- 1.16 In the event that the School determines that you are in breach of either the Student Code of Conduct or the School Code of Behaviour, or any other School policy that applies to these Terms and Conditions leading to conduct incompatible with our values and ethos of inclusivity, kindness and community, the breach will also be a breach of these Terms and Conditions and therefore a breach of contract. If such a breach occurs within the ‘contractual cooling period’ (or, if you begin the course late, within the first 14 days of your enrolment on the Course) that in the reasonable view of the School makes it inappropriate for you to remain on the Course, this contract may be immediately terminated. Please also see Section 3 of this Contract ‘Our Contract with You’ and Section 8 ‘Termination of Contract and Enrolment’
- 1.17 For the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners the School expects 100% attendance as per all Rambert School Courses of higher education. Compulsory attendance of at least 75% of the timetabled sessions is needed to pass each stage of the Course. Sessions within this clause are defined as: Lectures, seminars, research forums and discussions, tutorials and mentoring sessions. Mentoring sessions are pre-arranged and it is the student’s responsibility to ensure availability.
- 1.18 You should be aware that the majority of the School’s Courses of study and their assessments can be physically demanding. Dance and theatre skills by their very nature include elements of risk including injury. Whilst we take reasonably practicable measures to reduce or eliminate these risks, it is not possible to eliminate them all. For this reason, you may wish to consider taking out private health insurance to support you with any medical treatment that you may require.

Validating University

- 1.19 The degrees delivered by Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance are validated and awarded by the University of Kent.
- 1.20 For the purposes of this contract:
- Course fees include: tuition, course materials, learning resources and assessments, as set out in the relevant Course Summary Document for the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners. Please see also the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Fees Policy.
  - Information about additional costs is contained in Section 10 of this contract.
  - You may be required to complete additional administrative processes for the validating university to ensure you are appropriately registered for the award led to by your Course of study with the School.

These rules and regulations are part of the framework that will support you in understanding the artistic discipline(s) and related industries in and for which you are training. Please ensure you read the Rambert School Student Code of Conduct & Code of Behaviour along with the other documents referred to in Section 3.4 below, which contain these rules, regulations, policies and procedures and form part of the terms and conditions of your contract with the School.
- 2.2 Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance is a legally autonomous institution and independent training organisation and charity (registered charity number 1098900), and is a registered Higher Education Provider with the Office for Students (OfS) (UKPRN 10005378).

Confirmation of an offer of a place to study

- 3.2 Both undergraduate and postgraduate applicants to courses of higher education receive their offer of a place to study directly from Rambert School. In either case, an offer of a place to study is not confirmed until you have submitted written acceptance of the offer of a place to study, and Rambert School has confirmed the place in writing.

Registration on the Course

- 3.3 For the avoidance of doubt, a student will be deemed to be ‘registered’ by the School once the Rambert School has notified you in writing that your written acceptance of the offer of a place has been received and confirmed. Registered students are required to enrol with Rambert School at the start of each academic year in order to maintain their registration with the School. Please see also Section 5 of these Terms and Conditions for further information on enrolment and re-enrolment.

Breach of policies within the post-enrolment contractual 'cooling period'

- 3.6 There is a contractual 'cooling period' once you have commenced your enrolment with Rambert School during which you have the right to withdraw from your course up to and including the end of Week 2 of Term 1 without incurring any tuition fee liability (please see the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Fees Policy). In the event of starting the Course late, the first 14 days of your enrolment on the Course constitute the 'contractual cooling period'.
- 3.7 All students who join Rambert School sign up to our Student Code of Conduct and School Code of Behaviour. Our School Code of Behaviour covers every member of our community, both students and staff. Our values are enshrined in this Code of Behaviour, which sets out our expectations for how we will treat each other, with kindness, understanding and empathy, and that by joining Rambert School students are committing to being in ways that are inclusive and respectful, and do not engage in attitudes or behaviour that are incompatible with our values.

- 3.8 In the event that the School determines that you are in breach of either the Student Code of Conduct or the School Code of Behaviour, or any other School rules, regulations, policies and procedures that apply to these Terms and Conditions, this will be a breach of these Terms and Conditions and therefore a breach of contract. If such a breach occurs within the ‘contractual cooling period’ (or, if you begin the course late, within the first 14 days of your enrolment on the Course) that in the reasonable view of the School makes it inappropriate for you to remain on the course, this contract may be immediately terminated.
- 3.9 Examples of policy/contractual breaches that would, in the reasonable view of the School, make it inappropriate for the student to remain on their course, include, but are not limited to:
- Harmful attitudes (for example, transphobia, misogyny, anti-Semitism, Holocaust denial) that are incompatible with our values and harmful to our community
  - Racist behaviour
  - Sexual Misconduct (as defined in the Policy on Sexual Misconduct, Harassment and Related Behaviours)
  - Harassment (as defined in the Policy on Sexual Misconduct, Harassment and Related Behaviours)
  - Violence
  - Bullying
  - Other unacceptable behaviours that fall within the definition of ‘Related Behaviours’ as defined in the Policy on Sexual Misconduct, Harassment and Related Behaviours
- 3.10 Breach of any condition will be addressed according to your registration status. If you have accepted your offer but have not yet registered and enrolled for your Course, this contract may be terminated immediately by the School. Once you are a registered and enrolled student, unless you are within the contractual ‘cooling period’ (see ‘Breach of policies within the Post-enrolment Contractual Cooling Period’ earlier in this section), disciplinary proceedings may be brought against you under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy, which may result in sanctions including suspension or expulsion from the institution and your Course.
- 3.11 The MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Fees Policy (Annex A to these Terms and Conditions) that you will be furnished with at the point of offer, and a link to which is available at <https://www.rambertschool.org.uk/courses/policies-and-procedures/>

Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance website:
<https://www.rambertschool.org.uk/>

- 3.16 Please make sure that you familiarise yourself carefully with the content of these documents and their relevant requirements. Queries regarding any of the School documents should be referred to the Head of Admissions, Registry and Student Support at: admissions@rambertschool.org.uk
- 3.17 In the event of a conflict between these Terms and Conditions and the academic rules/regulations, academic policies and/or academic procedures of the validating university which apply to your studies, the academic rules/regulations, academic policies or academic procedures of the validating university shall take precedence. In the event of a conflict between these Terms and Conditions and any other rules/regulations, policies or procedures set out in Section 3 of these Terms and Conditions ‘Our Contract with You’ as applicable to your studies, these Terms and Conditions shall take precedence.
- 3.18 The contract may be ended by the School and your enrolment terminated if the relevant conditions are not met or our terms not complied with, as set out in the documents specified in Section 3.4 above. For example, failure to comply with any of the Rambert School’s Code of Behaviour (e.g. the School Student Code of Conduct and Code of Behaviour) could result in action being taken against you under the Non-Academic Misconduct policy, which could result in termination by the School of your enrolment on your course and of the contract. For further information, please see Section 8 of these Terms and Conditions ‘Termination of Contract and Enrolment’.
- 3.19 It is also a condition of your contract that any information submitted with or in relation to your application is true, genuine, accurate and complete (i.e. does not omit information you have been asked to provide). Please see the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Admissions Policy section: ‘False, fraudulent or misleading information provided by applicants’ for further information.

Visa and immigration requirements

- 3.20 The MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners is delivered on a part-time basis remotely and does not require UK residency. Rambert School does not sponsor applicants with a visa for entry to this course.

4. Application and Admission to Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance

- 4.1 The MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Admissions Policy sets out the framework for applying and being admitted to the Course. The Policy includes details of the School's processes for seeking feedback on, and raising appeals and complaints against, decisions made in connection with an application.

Applicants and students with disabilities and additional support needs

- 4.2 If you have a disability and/or any additional support needs you are strongly encouraged to disclose this to the School as soon as you apply or at any time during the admissions process, in order that we can best support you through your studies. Rambert School may tailor individual support plans to students under the Support Through Studies Policy, either prior to enrolment or at any time on the Course once enrolled.

- 4.3 Disabled students are encouraged to disclose their support requirements so that we can endeavour to meet them during the audition/interview process and subsequent training. Failure to disclose your disability may mean that you will not get the support to which you are entitled, and any necessary adjustments may be delayed or may not be made.

Disclosure of pre-existing physical injuries and conditions

- 4.4 Many of the Courses delivered by Rambert School concern demanding physical training in an artistic discipline. Rambert School will therefore routinely request whether applicants have any pre-existing injury or condition that they wish to disclose to the School prior to commencing studies, in order that they can be appropriately supported.

- 4.5 Where candidates do not disclose a pre-existing injury or condition ahead of commencing their studies, or enrolled students fail to disclose injuries or conditions arising after Enrolment, Rambert School accepts no liability for any exacerbation or impact upon such an injury or condition. For the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners, this extends to any exacerbation or impact upon an injury or condition that is sustained as a direct or indirect part of activities undertaken by the student in pursuit of this award. For further information, please also see Section 11 of these Terms and Conditions, 'Risk of Injury and Health Insurance'.

Criminal convictions

- 4.6 Having a criminal record is not necessarily a bar to being a student of Rambert School. Rambert School is committed to equality of opportunity and will not request or require any applicant to disclose whether they have a criminal record prior to receiving an offer of a place to study, in any circumstances.

- 4.7 Rambert School only requires disclosure of a criminal record in specific circumstances dictated by the requirements of Courses. Where a Course has a compulsory element (e.g. placement involving 'regulated activity'<sup>1</sup> with children and/or vulnerable adults) that requires a criminal records check (enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service, or 'DBS' check), applicants will normally be required to undertake a criminal record check before an applicant's accepted place can be confirmed by the School.

<sup>1</sup> For more information on 'regulated activity' please see the Criminal Records Policy at <https://www.rambertschool.org.uk/courses/policies-and-procedures/>

- 4.8 Where a Course has an optional element requiring a criminal record check that students can choose whether to take, students are not required to undergo a criminal record check unless they wish to participate in the element.
- 4.9 Upon receipt of a disclosure of a criminal record, whether by an individual applicant/student or as a result of a criminal records check, the School will undertake a risk assessment in accordance with the procedures under the Criminal Records Policy. For more information, details of relevant Courses where an enhanced DBS check may be required, and the specific circumstances in which the School will process criminal records data, please see the Criminal Records Policy. The Summary Course Documents also indicate where a criminal records check will or may be required.

5. Enrolment and Re-enrolment

- 5.1 Your place on a Course of higher education with Rambert School will be conditional on you complying with the relevant School enrolment conditions and requirements, including any conditions relating to your fees, and enrolling at the start of your course and at the start of each subsequent academic year.
- 5.2 You must enrol at the designated session at the start of your course, as set out in your introductory information and induction pack provided by the School. If you cannot or do not enrol at the designated session you must provide the School with a reason for your non-enrolment which is acceptable to the School in order to be permitted to enrol on another occasion, otherwise you will not be entitled to enrol for that year of study (or any future year of study) and your relationship with the School and this contract shall be terminated.
- 5.3 The deferral of the offer of a place for enrolment in a later year of study is not normally permitted by the School. Rambert School will exercise its discretion in its consideration of a request to defer a place for enrolment, particularly where a deferral may be a reasonable adjustment for a disabled student.
- 5.4 Failure to enrol at the start of your Course in accordance with the conditions set out in Section 5 of these Terms and Conditions will result in your relationship with the School and this contract being terminated and you will need to reapply from the start to be considered for a place to study at Rambert School in a future year. This is the case regardless of whether you have previously completed a course with Rambert School and/or the Conservatoire for Dance & Drama (of which Rambert School was until August 2022 a member), or with another or former member School of the Conservatoire for Dance & Drama.
- 5.5 Provided you are eligible to re-enrol (which means you have met the assessment and progression requirements, do not owe any Course fees and have not been suspended from the course for any reason including, for example, relating to proceedings brought under any policies (such as, but not limited to, Non-Academic Misconduct Policy & Procedures; Emergency Powers of Exclusion and Suspension; Support Through Studies Policy; Policy on Sexual Misconduct, Harassment and Related Behaviours), you must re-enrol for each subsequent year of study using the approved procedure. If you cannot or do not re-enrol using the approved procedure you must provide the School with a reason for your non-enrolment which is acceptable to the School in order to be permitted to enrol on another occasion, otherwise you will not be entitled to enrol for that year of study (or any future year of study), and your relationship with Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance and this contract shall be terminated.

6. Your Obligations

6.1 In accepting these Terms and Conditions and enrolling with us as a student, you become part of the School and community. From the point your offer is confirmed you are required to abide by the regulations, rules, policies and procedures set out at Section 3 above. You are required at all times to behave courteously and respectfully towards other students and members of academic and non-academic staff, including visiting professionals, in accordance with the Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance Student Code of Conduct and School Code of Behaviour. Please also see Sections 3, 8, 10 and 11 of these Terms and Conditions.

6.2 Your obligations to Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance are to:

6.2.1 Pay your Course fees and other required fees when due, as set out in the applicable Fees Policy (Annex A to these Terms and Conditions) and in the offer letter. If you cease to be a registered student, because for example you withdraw from your course or Rambert School terminates your enrolment due to non-payment of fees or any other causes as specified in these Terms and Conditions, you may still be liable for any outstanding fees (see Section 8 'Termination of Contract and Enrolment' below).

6.2.2 Be responsible for your own learning, making use of the appropriate equipment and facilities and complying with the rules and regulations for the use of resources and facilities as set out in the Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance Student Code of Conduct and School Code of Behaviour and other codes of conduct as appear in relevant policies (e.g. Non-Academic Misconduct Policy & Procedures; Policy on Sexual Misconduct, Harassment and Related Behaviours).

6.2.3 Participate actively in your Course, including meeting the Course requirements and School's rules around attendance, which do not generally allow for absence other than in exceptional circumstances, and do nothing that will hinder or interfere with the education of other students.

6.2.4 Meet assessment deadlines and related assessment requirements, including attendance requirements for continuous or performance-based assessment.

6.2.5 For the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners the School expects 100% attendance as per all Rambert School Courses of higher education. Compulsory attendance of at least 75% of the timetabled sessions is needed to pass each stage of the Course. Sessions within this clause are defined as: Lectures, seminars, research forums and discussions, tutorials and mentoring sessions. Mentoring sessions are pre-arranged and it is the student's responsibility to ensure availability.

6.2.6 Familiarise yourself with and comply with the relevant rules, regulations, policies and procedures of the validating university, the Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance Student Code of Conduct and School Code of Behaviour and other applicable codes of conduct and all other rules and regulations, policies and procedures listed under Section 3.4 above which govern the operation of your Course and your relationship with the School.

6.2.7 Comply with the terms of your visa (if applicable).

7. Our Obligations to You

7.1 Our obligations to you are to:

- 7.1.1 Provide you with the tuition, pastoral and learning support associated with your Course with reasonable care and skill;
- 7.1.2 Subject to Sections 17 ('Course Changes, Discontinuance, Suspension and Non-provision') and 18 ('Other Changes to the Contract') of these Terms and Conditions, deliver your Course as described in School prospectus/website pages and Course Summary Document for the duration of the Course; and
- 7.1.3 Ensure that you are assessed in line with the relevant Regulations of the validating university for your Course.

8. Termination of Contract and Enrolment

8.1 You may withdraw from the Course and terminate this contract and your enrolment as a student at any time by giving written notice to Rambert School by sending an email or letter to Rambert School with whom you are enrolled at the address and contact details provided in your offer letter, and/or by emailing the School at admissions@rambertschool.org.uk. Any such withdrawal will take effect when the School confirms that the communication from you has been received and confirms the date of withdrawal, which will normally be the date on which the communication from you is received by the School.

8.2 Rambert School may terminate this contract and your registration if, in accordance with these Terms and Conditions and the appropriate rules, regulations, policies or procedures:

- 8.2.1 you do not pay your tuition (Course) fee when due;
- 8.2.2 you fail to disclose relevant or significant information to the School (including in respect of criminal convictions where required to make a disclosure - please see 'Criminal Convictions' in Section 4 of these Terms & Conditions and the Criminal Records Policy for further information) or have produced false, incorrect, incomplete or misleading information, whether in the course of your application or whilst on your Course;
- 8.2.3 we become aware of information about you which we did not know during the application process and which, in our reasonable opinion, makes it inappropriate for you to study on the Course;
- 8.2.4 you fail to comply with any of your obligations under the Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance Student Code of Conduct and School Code of Behaviour to participate in ensuring the School is a safe and inclusive community;
- 8.2.5 your student status is terminated (for example, under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy & Procedures or any other School policy), or in the case of an overseas (international) student requiring immigration permission to enter or remain in the United Kingdom, if the School removes its sponsorship from your visa; (Note: the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Course delivered on a part-time basis remotely does not require UK residency. Applicants shall not be sponsored for Tier 4 student visa for entry to this course), and/or

- 8.2.6 as an enrolled student, you materially breach any of the Terms and Conditions of the contract: for example, failure to abide by health and safety requirements in line with theatre industry guidelines or serious cases of non-approved absence, or serious breach of the Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance Student Code of Conduct and School Code of Behaviour, Non-Academic Misconduct Policy & Procedures, Policy on Sexual Misconduct, Harassment and Related Behaviours or any other codes of conduct and behaviour applicable to your registration as a student on the course;
- 8.2.7 you materially breach any of the Terms and Conditions of the contract within the first 14 days of your enrolment (the ‘contractual cooling period’). In this event, where conduct by you is deemed by the School to be a breach of any of our policies and incompatible with our values and ethos of inclusivity, kindness and community, that, in the reasonable view of the School, makes it inappropriate for you to remain on the Course or as a student of the School, the School may immediately terminate this contract. Please also see Section 3 of this Contract ‘Our Contract with You’ for further information.
- 8.3 If the contract and your enrolment have been terminated, your entitlement to a refund of Course fees and/or other fees will be in accordance with the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Fees Policy (Annex A to these Terms and Conditions).
- 8.4 A decision by Rambert School to terminate this contract and thus your registration and enrolment as a student at the School will mean that you shall be required to cease studying at the School with immediate effect.
- 8.5 On termination of the contract and your enrolment, you must return your door pass and any other property owned by the School to the designated staff member at the School. If you are uncertain about this, you should contact the School immediately to seek clarification about returning such property.

9. Intermission/Interruption of Studies

- 9.1 You may be permitted to intermit your studies (also known as ‘interruption of studies’), with permission from Rambert School in accordance with the academic regulations of the validating university and the requirements of your Course. Depending on its length, approval may be required from the validating university before a period of intermission can be granted. All periods of intermission count towards the maximum period of study for the completion of your Course. Please see the Rambert School Intermission of Studies Policy for further details.
- 9.2 Rambert School may, on occasion and in line with the Support Through Studies Policy, the academic regulations of the validating university and the requirements of your Course, require you to suspend your studies if it determines that you are not able for any reason to adequately participate in your Course.

- 9.3 During the intermission of your studies, Rambert School may make adjustments to your Course, in line with the terms outlined in Sections 17 and 18. You will be consulted where changes may substantively affect your Course as soon as it is practicable for the School to do so.
- 9.4 If your enrolment is interrupted or terminated for whatever reason including intermission of studies, this may affect any bursary or scholarship awarded to you, and / or any visa issued to you. (Note: the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Course delivered on a part-time basis remotely does not require UK residency. Applicants shall not be sponsored for Tier 4 student visa for entry to this course).

10. Fees and Costs

- 10.1 This section sets out key conditions relating to fees. You should refer to the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Fees Policy (Annex A to these Terms and Conditions) and the relevant Course Summary Document for full information on fees and debts.

- 10.2 It is important that you read the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Fees Policy (Annex A to these Terms and Conditions) carefully as this sets out the respective rights and obligations of you and Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance, including but not limited to circumstances in which sums paid to the School will be refunded. It also sets out the potential consequences if you fail to make payment, which includes (for unpaid academic fees and charges) the School's ability to terminate your registration and this contract, and/or to withhold awards. In addition, non-payment of academic or non-academic fees and/or charges could result in Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance taking legal action against you to recover outstanding amounts.

Course fee status

- 10.3 The Course fee status of individual applicants will be determined prior to an offer being made of a place to study on a Rambert School Course of study. The Course fee status will be assessed and determined by Rambert School operating the relevant Course to which the applicant has applied. Course fee status will be set as either 'Home' or 'Overseas' and will be confirmed at the point of offer, in the offer letter.

Course fee

- 10.4 The Course fees for the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners are the same fee for all students, whether assessed by the School as UK/Overseas. For students admitted to the MA course in October 2024, the course fees are as follows.:

- UK fee: £4,000 per year (£8,000 in total)
- Overseas fee: £4,000 per year (£8,000 in total)

The Course fees confirmed in your offer letter are fixed for the normal two-year duration of the course.

- 10.5 The above term applies to all students paying Course fees, whether you are funded via the Student Loans Company or an equivalent funding body, or you are self-funded.

Fee increases

- 10.6 Students on the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Course who intermit their studies and return in a new academic year that falls outside the normal two-year registration period for this Course are charged at the same rate as new students in the year they return. This may lead to an increase in the amount you are required to pay overall for the Course fees. Where a student returns from intermitting their studies with no tuition outstanding, there will not be any increase in any outstanding Course fees.
- 10.7 In the event that reassessment leads a student to exceed the normal two-year period of registration, and where that reassessment necessitates further tuition for this Course, students will be charged at the same rate as new students in the year where reassessment and further tuition takes place. The fee shall be pro-rated on a termly or half termly basis, subject to the period of tuition required. Where reassessment does not necessitate any tuition, there will be no increase in any outstanding Course fees.
- 10.8 Please see Section 3 'Fee levels and Increases' and Section 5 'Course Fees and Withdrawal or Intermission from the Course' of the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Fees Policy (Annex A to these Terms and Conditions) for further information.

Associated additional Course costs

- 10.9 Any associated additional course costs for the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners shall be set annually by Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance and published in the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Course Summary Document applicable to your year of entry.

Additional costs

- 10.10 Course fees for the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners do not include personal materials and expenses; examples of such can be costs relating to students' access to computer and internet to undertake the online study, costs relating to students' individual research project demands (e.g. equipment, travel if applicable, books), etc. You should look on the relevant Course Summary Document for your course for more information on additional costs, including additional costs that are non-compulsory but which you may wish to pay.
- 10.11 Information on additional costs is found in the relevant Course Summary Document, and you are advised to contact Rambert School for any further information.

Payment of fees

- 10.12 It is your responsibility to ensure that all deposits, tuition and other Course fees and charges payable to Rambert School are paid when due. Your offer letter will state the amount of Course fees that you will be required to pay.
- 10.13 Unless you have the prior written agreement of Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance to a different schedule of instalments, Course fees must be paid in accordance with the schedule of instalments relating to your specific course, as outlined in the Fees Policy. All fee instalments must be received on time; failure to do so will be a breach of these Terms and Conditions. Late or non-payment may result in your removal from any instalment plan.

- 10.14 Where Rambert School exceptionally permits attendance whilst a Course fee instalment is outstanding, the period of attendance with outstanding Course fees will not normally exceed one month from the date that the instalment is due. Where an alternative instalment plan has not been agreed the Rambert School reserves the right to suspend or withdraw the student in accordance with Section 8 ('Termination of Contract and Enrolment') of these Terms and Conditions for non-payment of Course fees. Please note that if someone other than you makes any payment, or agrees to make any payment, on your behalf, you remain liable for full payment.
- 10.15 If you do not pay Course fees in accordance with these terms, the School reserves the right to withdraw your place on the course, and/or suspend or withdraw you from the course until any Course fee debt is paid or cancelled by the School in accordance with the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Fees Policy . If you cease to be a student of the School, because for example you withdraw or the School terminates your registration, you may still be liable for any Course fees and/or other charges which are outstanding, in accordance with the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Fees Policy (Annex A to these Terms and Conditions).

11. Risk of Injury and Health Insurance

- 11.1 Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance aims to provide a well-maintained environment that all users and staff members find safe and enjoyable and in which you can seek to achieve your learning goals effectively. In providing this environment, the School understands and complies with its legal obligations to act reasonably to safeguard the health and safety of our students.
- 11.2 Pursuant to these Terms and Conditions, all students are required to familiarise themselves fully with and to adhere to the Rambert School Student Code of Conduct and Code of Behaviour. Rules around conduct and discipline can also be found in the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy & Procedures and in the Policy on Sexual Misconduct, Harassment and Related Behaviours.
- 11.3 The Rambert School Student Code of Conduct and Code of Behaviour published on the School website and the School's Postgraduate Student Handbook and relevant appendices also draw attention to the risk of injury and insurances. You are required to take care in ensuring your own safety and the safety of those around you, to ensure that equipment that you own is suitable for the proposed use and regularly checked and maintained, and to report any issues with School equipment or premises as soon as reasonably practicable to a member of School staff.
- 11.4 You should be aware that the majority of the School's Courses of study and their assessments can be physically demanding. Dance and theatre skills by their very nature include elements of risk including injury. Whilst we take reasonably practicable measures to reduce or eliminate these risks, it is not possible to eliminate them all. For this reason, you may wish to consider taking out private health insurance to support you with any medical treatment that you may require.
- 11.5 Health care can be obtained free of charge from the NHS for 'home students'<sup>2</sup> but waiting times for treatment are unpredictable and may result in disruption to and interruption of your studies. Long periods of absence may result in you being unable to complete your course. You are advised to contact Rambert School for information and advice regarding medical/health insurance.

12. Personal Equipment and other Property

- 12.1 Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance cannot accept any responsibility or liability for loss or damage to your equipment or other property which is incurred at the School, or in an alternative location, or otherwise in the course of your studies.

13. Intellectual Property

- 13.1 Intellectual Property Rights shall mean all patents, rights to inventions, copyright and related rights, moral rights, trademarks, rights in designs, rights in computer software, database rights and other intellectual property rights, whether registered or unregistered.
- 13.2 By signing these Terms and Conditions you are agreeing to Rambert School using photographic images and/or recordings for publicity/marketing/other legitimate purposes (such as demonstrating the artistic and technical training delivered by Rambert School). You may withdraw your consent for us to use these images/recordings at any time by writing to the Head of Academic Administration & Compliance at Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance via email on academicservices@rambertschool.org.uk.
- 13.3 Students on the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners will undertake research work as part of their Course where their work is assessed and awarded credit towards the award of MA. In this regard, students will normally be the sole owners of that intellectual property.
- 13.4 Rambert School acknowledges that whether undergraduate or postgraduate, students have ownership of any intellectual property they generate and provide to Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance during their studies; there may however be instances where students are not the sole owners of intellectual property, as set out below:

Intellectual property relating to work that does not contribute to the intended award

- 13.4.1 Where intellectual property arises as part of organised extra-curricular work or projects of Rambert School involving the student that do not contribute to the student's intended award, Rambert School and the student shall co-own the intellectual property;

Intellectual property claimed by a third party

- 13.4.2 Where a student is in receipt of sponsorship by a third party (such as an employer or other organisation external to Rambert School), the student may be required to complete a separate agreement regarding intellectual property with that third party. A student in receipt of sponsorship of any kind (whether financial or otherwise) is required to check any terms and inform Rambert School of any intellectual property being claimed by the third party, in advance of commencing any related project or work.

Independent work by Rambert School using or based on work or ideas generated by students

13.4.3 Where Rambert School takes forward work or ideas generated by students on the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners in pursuit of that award, either whilst they are registered students of the School or subsequently, those students will own that intellectual property. Rambert School will write to the student to give notice of its intent to use the intellectual property and to give the student time to raise any objections, normally giving not less than 10 days' notice.

13.4.4 In such instances however, Rambert School and the student will co-own any intellectual property produced from subsequent work arising from work or ideas originally generated by the student on the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners in pursuit of that award; the student will have sole ownership of the original work or ideas. Each party will have the right to use such co-owned intellectual property, subject to clause 13.4.5 below.

Intellectual property co-owned by a student and Rambert School

13.4.5 Where intellectual property is co-owned, both Rambert School and the student have the right to use that property as they see fit, provided that neither party brings the other into any disrepute as a result of the use of the intellectual property. To avoid such instances, each party should notify the other of potential use and provide the capacity to raise any objections or concerns, normally giving not less than 10 days' notice.

13.5 For the avoidance of doubt, Rambert School does not claim any ownership of intellectual property generated by a student independently of the School outside of their studies whilst enrolled on the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners.

Queries regarding intellectual property

13.6 Where there is ambiguity or any queries regarding the ownership of any intellectual property generated at Rambert School, students should contact the Head of Academic Administration & Compliance in the first instance.

14. Data Protection

14.1 Rambert School collects, holds and otherwise processes 'personal data' which may include sensitive personal data known as 'special category data' as defined by the Data Protection Act (2018) and the General Data Protection Regulations (2018) about applicants and students of the School which is provided to them by you (or which is otherwise received from third parties) for its own, separate purpose(s), in accordance with our Data Processing Statement.

14.2 This personal information is generally processed by Rambert School for the following general purposes: to administer admissions, courses of study and pastoral care; to monitor student performance; to send communications to students; to compile statistics for internal monitoring and enhancement purposes or for publication; and to make required returns to external bodies, including to the regulator (the Office for Students) and agencies of UK Government (e.g. as a Condition of leave to remain in the UK). More specific details are set out in the School's Data Processing Statement.

14.3 Rambert School will share, as necessary, information with External Officers and the validating university regarding student cases<sup>3</sup> which may include personal sensitive ('special category') data as part of the fair and proper investigation and handling of a student case, and to maintain and enhance standards and good practice.

14.4 'As necessary' means where it is necessary to share information regarding a student case in order to fairly and properly investigate and resolve it (including Appeal Panel hearings). All such information will be treated confidentially. If you have any questions or concerns regarding the School's procedures you should contact the Rambert School Head of Academic Administration & Compliance in the first instance.

15. Safeguarding and Communication with Parents

16.1 Subject to Section 19 ('Events outside our Control') and our rights to make changes to Courses and/or to these Terms and Conditions under Sections 17 ('Course Changes, Discontinuance, Suspension and Non-provision) and 18 ('Other Changes to the Contract'), Rambert School will deliver the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Course as set out in the Course Summary Document attached to your offer letter and mentioned in these Terms and Conditions.

16.2 The structure of the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Course consists of projects which are self-directed and self-led by students. Notwithstanding this, Rambert School is a dynamic, wide-reaching and thriving community, and opportunities for individual and/or collaborative activities, either related to the Course or outside the Course, may arise during your studentship. In such circumstances, you may on occasion be asked to express preferences for which of the available collaborative or group performance/academic projects or similar activities you wish to undertake.

16.3 Whilst Rambert School undertakes to provide each student with an appropriate range of opportunities throughout the duration of the course as set out in the published information including prospectus and Course Summary Document, the School does not guarantee to accommodate the individual preferences of students in its allocation of collaborative or group academic/performance projects or similar activities to students, although it will make reasonable endeavours to meet student preferences. Consequently, you may not get to take part in the group performance/academic

17. Course Changes, Discontinuance, Suspension and Non-provision

- 17.1 If reasonably considered to be necessary, Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance may make reasonable changes to the content, syllabus, mode of delivery or assessment, and/or timetable of the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Course set out in the prospectus and Course Summary Document which:
- 17.1.1 are not material to the overall learning outcomes of the course (for example, moving the timing of a particular module, class or project within the year, or a change in the staff delivering the module or project);
  - 17.1.2 will benefit the training of you or other students (for example, enabling you or other students to benefit from additional classes with visiting professionals);
  - 17.1.3 are caused by matters outside our control (as set out in Section 19); and/or

- 17.2 Rambert School may discontinue, suspend and/or not provide Courses if there are insufficient numbers of student enrolments to make a Course viable and/or for any reason outside the School's control (as set out in Section 19). Where relevant, the School Student Protection Plan may apply.
- 17.3 Where changes are to be made to Courses in accordance with Section 18 of these Terms and Conditions which are not significant, Rambert School will, following suitable consultation with affected students, take all reasonable steps to notify you at the earliest opportunity and to minimise any disruption to your studies.
- 17.4 Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance defines 'significant changes' to a Course of study as changes requiring full approval by the validating university in accordance with that university's academic quality assurance processes which can be found on the validating university website.
- 17.5 In the unlikely event that Rambert School changes a Course significantly:
- 17.5.1 The School will, following suitable consultation with affected students, take all reasonable steps to notify you at the earliest opportunity and minimise any disruption to your studies (if you are affected by the change);
  - 17.5.2 You will be entitled to withdraw from the Course by informing the School of this intention in writing;
  - 17.5.3 If you withdraw from the Course, Rambert School may (if reasonable to do so), refund Course fees and/or deposits paid in accordance with the Refunds and Compensation Policy (albeit please note that, if reasonable, refunds may be calculated on a pro rata basis) and where reasonably practicable, the School will offer/facilitate for you a place on a Course which the School deems a suitable alternative. Where such a Course is not delivered by Rambert School, any requirements for entry to that course will be at the discretion of the admitting institution and Rambert School will not be liable in the event that another institution refuses admission to that Course.

- 17.6 In the unlikely event that Rambert School discontinues, suspends and/or does not provide the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Course, in consultation with the validating university:
- 17.6.1 The School will, following suitable consultation with affected students, take all reasonable steps to notify you at the earliest opportunity and to minimise any disruption to your studies (if you are affected by the change);
  - 17.6.2 Rambert School will review the decision in accordance with the applicable Student Protection Plan to determine appropriate refunds of Course fees and/or deposits paid (albeit please note that, if reasonable, refunds may be calculated on a pro rata basis); and
  - 17.6.3 Where reasonably practicable, the School will facilitate a move to an alternative course within the School (if applicable and feasible) or with another provider.

18. Other Changes to the Contract

- 18.1 Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance may from time to time revise the Terms and Conditions of the contract including the rules, regulations, policies and procedures referred to in these Terms and Conditions:
- 18.1.1 in circumstances where the School reasonably considers this to be necessary for the enhancement of its provision in the best interests of students and/or for the appropriate management of its resources and/or its student community; and/or
  - 18.1.2 in circumstances which are caused by matters outside our control (as set out in Section 19); and/or
  - 18.1.3 in circumstances which reflect changes in relevant laws; and/ or
  - 18.1.4 in the event of changes to the requirements of Rambert School by its regulators (e.g. the Office for Students) and/or professional/other statutory bodies; and/or
  - 18.1.5 in the event of changes in Rambert School's validation arrangements, for example where the validating university determines to amend any of its rules, regulations, policies or procedures which apply to your Course.
- 18.2 Where changes are made to the Terms and Conditions of the contract under condition 17, 18 or 19, where necessary we will undertake suitable consultation with students and take all reasonable steps to communicate and explain these changes to you with as much notice as possible.
- 18.3 It may also be necessary for Rambert School to make changes to these Terms and Conditions, including to respond to the factors identified under Section 17 'Course Changes, Discontinuance, Suspension and Non-provision'. Where changes are made, these will normally be brought into effect at the start of the next academic year.

However, in certain circumstances it may be necessary for the changes to be implemented during the course of an academic year. We will notify students of any proposed changes to these Terms and Conditions as soon as is reasonably practicable, and will seek student agreement to significant change (as defined in Section 17 of these Terms and Conditions).

19. Events outside our Control

23. Your Right to Cancel

Your right to cancel within the first 14 days of entering the contract

- 23.1 Your right to cancel in this Section 23 is additional to your right to withdraw from the Course (as set out in Section 8 'Termination of Contract and Enrolment').
- 23.2 When we confirm your place on the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Course, a legal contract is formed with Rambert School (as explained in Section 3 of these Terms and Conditions 'Our Contract with You').
- 23.3 For the avoidance of doubt, your place on the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Course at Rambert School of Ballet & Contemporary Dance is only confirmed when you receive, in response to your acceptance of the School's offer of a place, an email from Rambert School confirming that you have been accepted onto the Course.
- 23.4 You have the right to cancel this contract under the Consumer Contract (Information, Cancellation and Additional Payments) Regulations 2013 within 14 days of the date of Rambert School's written confirmation of your place on the course without giving any reason. The cancellation period will expire after 14 days from the day of the conclusion of this contract.

Exercising the right to cancel (pre-enrolment)

- 23.5 To exercise the right to cancel, you must inform us of your decision to cancel this contract by written notification, normally submitted by e-mail. Post-enrolment cancellation and contractual 'cooling period'

- 23.9 Rambert School understands that sometimes a student enters into a contract with us in good faith, but upon arrival and enrolment at the School they determine that it is not the right decision for them to continue on the Course. For this reason, we have a post-enrolment contractual cooling period. This means that you have the right to withdraw from your course up to and including the end of Week 2 of Term 1 without incurring any Course fee liability, although you may incur other costs that the School is not liable for (please see the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Fees Policy (Annex A to these Terms and Conditions) for further information.
- 23.10 Please also see Sections 3 (Our Contract with You) and 8 (Termination of Contract and Enrolment) of these Terms and Conditions for further information on the post-enrolment contractual 'cooling period'. Please see Section 10 'Fees and Costs' and the MA in Dance Research for Professional Practitioners Fees Policy (Annex A to these Terms and Conditions) for information on fee refunds and liabilities.
